

Employment Law: Beyond the Basics presented by Sterling Education Services

Join C. Edward Langhammer, partner in KD's Los Angeles office, for Employment Law: Beyond the Basics as he discusses privacy and social media in the workplace. The full day seminar presented by Sterling Education Services will also cover other emerging developments in employment law, including the EEOC crack down on employee classification, the NLRB's expanding agenda, and much more.

Human resource professionals, business owners, managers, supervisors, CIS managers, payroll professionals and attorneys should all attend. CLE and CPE credits are available.

To learn more or to register today, click here.